The East Rand Youth Orchestra took part in the annual Youth Orchestra Festival, which was held at the Linder Auditorium in Johannesburg on Sunday, August 12.

The highlight of the afternoon was the more than 200 youth orchestra members joining in for a mass orchestra performance conducted by the famous guest conductor Nicholas Nicolaidis.

The mass orchestra performed the Capriccio Espagnol by Nikolai-Kosakov, the well-known main theme of Superman and finished the afternoon by playing the music of The Lord of the The Dance by Ronan Hardiman.

The afternoon was a highlight in the calendar of the East Rand Youth Orchestra as the Linder Auditorium hosts professional and international orchestras and performers on a regular basis.
